KARTIK AARYAN JOINS MR AMITABH BACHCHAN FOR LUX INFERNO

Lux has roped in the new age heartthrob Kartik Aaryan alongside Bollywood's megastar Amitabh Bachchan for the first time for Lux Inferno. The main idea behind bringing Kartik Aaryan as one of the ambassadors for Inferno is to promote the thermal wear range among its new target group.

As Kartik is quite young and versatile, he is a natural fit to connect largely with his generation. As today's era is defined by comfort, Kartik is undoubtedly the right face to bring in a dash of freshness to the brand and capture the attention of the youth. This iconic pairing has been a huge hit in the small screen and attracted a huge customer base thereafter.

INFERNO TVC WINS HEARTS

This winter, Lux has come out with one of the most entertaining TVCs of the season to promote the thermal wear range to strengthen the brand's appeal among its target audience. The TVC features Amitabh Bachchan and Kartik Aaryan together for the first time for Lux Inferno in a fun-filled avatar like never before. In the new commercial, Amitabh Bachchan is seen all warm and comfortable wearing Lux Inferno, while Kartik is seen shivering in cold in his normal pair of clothes. The ad ends on a comic note where Mr. Bachchan rebukes Kartik in a funny way and then hands him Lux Inferno for maximum warmth and comfort.

While the dialogues and background score offer fun element and a fresh tone to the TVC, the pairing provides an unabridged dimension to the ad and the brand.

The TVC is still winning hearts all across, leading to a significant increase in the product sale in its segment.

LUX COTT'S WOOL LAUNCHES 3 TVCS FOR NEW SEASON

With commencement of the winter season, Lux Cott's Wool has rolled out three new commercials to promote their winter wear collection among the consumers.

The first commercial portrays how a person can get rid of chilling cold by either calling a pehlwan for a hot oil body massage or wear Lux Cott's Wool; the second commercial features how you can apply red chilli paste on your cheeks to stay warm or wear Lux Cott's Wool; while the third commercial pictures how you can call a Gorilla from the jungle and get warm under his dense fur or wear Lux Cott's Wool.

All the three TVCs gives away the same message, which says Lux Cott's Wool aapke aas paas ki sardi ko dur bhaga deta hai. The tag "Lux Cott's Wool Sardi Bhagane ka Sahi Nuskha" fits in appositely with the TVCs thus claiming what the product does.

As Lux understands the power of great TVCs and how it supports in brand expansion, it never fails to come out with such innovative and entertaining TVCs for its thermals. The TVCs are successfully running all across and increasing a good demand for the product in the market.
